

Assignment: Layers of Culture

(Group)

1

Appearance

What we can see directly

2

Process

How is it made? Who creates or practises it? What knowledge, skills, time, or resources are needed?

3

Relationship

Who is involved? How does it connect people, families, or communities?

4

Culture and ways of living

What cultural values or ways of life can be seen in this? How does it reflect beliefs, traditions, or identity?

5

Value and meaning

Who does this have meaning for, and why is it important?

Assignment: Layers of Culture

(Group)

O - Observation

Select details, images, or traces that you can observe from what you are studying. These details will be used for further understanding and interpretation.

F - Fact / Information

Information from reference sources

I - Interpretation

Value or meaning from the information

Evidence used

☐ photos _____

☐ observation. _____

☐ supporting documents and reference

☐ other _____

The beauty and value discovered

From your perspective, where does the beauty of the object lie, and what information supports your conclusion?

